Woodinville, Wash – June 1, 2017 – Homeward Pet Adoption Center is expecting—more than 500 kittens that is! Sunny days and warmer weather means it’s raining kittens and hundreds will soon be pouring through the shelter’s doors, needing food, medical aid and quality care.

To prepare for its newest arrivals, Homeward Pet is holding its 2nd Annual Fur Baby Shower on Saturday, June 10 at MoltenWorks Glass Studio in Woodinville.

Help Homeward Pet shower the kittens with essential supplies and stop by MoltenWorks between 10:30am-12:30pm on the 10th to drop off kitten donations. Enjoy light refreshments, games and fun-filled activities. Plus, get a sneak peek at some of the animal shelter’s newest arrivals!

Items that will benefit Homeward Pet kittens most include: wet and dry kitten food, cat scratchers, kitty litter and toys. A complete list of essential items can be found on Homeward Pet’s Fur Baby Shower Amazon Wish List.

“Caring for kittens takes a village. From the rescuers to the adopters, foster volunteers and staff, we put hundreds of hours into rescuing even just one kitten,” Laurel Ehrlich, Homeward Pet’s Kitten Foster Coordinator says.

Help Homeward Pet shower the kittens with much-needed supplies and mark your calendars for the 2nd Annual Fur Baby Shower on June 10!

Homeward Pet Adoption Center is one of the leading non-profit, no-kill animal shelters in Washington State. Our mission is to give homeless animals a second chance through rescue, shelter and adoption. Since being founded in 1990, the shelter has matched over 28,000 animals with safe and loving families. With more than 350 volunteers, every cat and dog who comes to Homeward Pet receives an abundance of love, attention and care. For some animals that is more than they have ever known.
