Homeward Pet celebrates 28th anniversary with $28 adoptions

Woodinville, Wash.: Homeward Pet is turning 28! Homeward Pet Adoption Center in Woodinville is celebrating 28 years of making matches and saving lives. During their anniversary celebration, Saturday, February 24, all adoptions will be a discounted $28 from 12 pm – 6 pm.

“It’s one of our biggest and most exciting days of the year,” says Gary Rubin, Homeward Pet’s Executive Director. “Last year, we celebrated uniting a record 38 animals with their new families.” This year, Homeward Pet is continuing its matchmaking extravaganza. Staff will be offering tours for waiting families.

Families unable to add another four-legged family member can still help! Share that loving feeling with a homeless cat or dog by making a meaningful $28 donation today. This support will feed a litter of kittens for a week, provide a year’s worth of vaccinations for a cat, feed a large dog for a month, or pay for a microchip implantation and lifetime registration for a dog.
