

Where to adopt Barn Cats

What is a barn cat? Barn cats are feral, un-socialized, or free-roaming cats (also called "Community Cats" or "Working Cats") who cannot be placed as pets in a home environment. Placing them as outdoor cats in barns, sheds, garages or other outdoor structures is a humane and practical alternative to euthanasia. Barn cats can live out their lives in relative security and comfort. In return, they'll deter rodents and other pests.

Check out these local organizations that place barn cats:

Organization	City	Phone Number	Website
Purrfect Pals	Arlington	360-652-9611	purrfectpals.org/
Whatcom Barn Buddies	Bellingham	360-223-5117	facebook.com/WhatcomBarnBuddies/
Seattle Humane	Bellevue	425-641-0080	seattlehumane.org
Colville Valley Animal Sanctuary	Colville	509-684-1475	cvasanctuary.org/
Kittitas County Friends of Animals	Ellensburg	509-312-9850	kcfoa.org/
Everett Animal Shelter	Everett	425-257-6000	everettwa.gov/148/Animal-Services
Regional Animal Services of King County	Kent	206-296-7387	kingcounty.gov/depts/regional-animal-services.aspx
Kitsap Humane Society	Kitsap	360-692-6477	kitsap-humane.org/
Paws of Bainbridge Island and North Kitsap	Kitsap	206-842-2451	northkitsappaws.org/
Oasis for Animals	Langley	360-321-4142	oasisforanimals.org/
South County Cats	Maple Valley	No phone	southcountycats.org/
SpokAnimal	Spokane	509-534-8133	spokanimal.org/
Humane Society for Tacoma and Pierce County	Tacoma	253 383-2733	thehumanesociety.org/
Blue Mountain Humane Society	Walla Walla	509-525-2452	bluemountainhumane.org/
Wenatchee Valley Humane Society	Wenatchee	509-662-9577	wenatcheehumane.org/